COUNCILMAN-ELECT LYMAN WILL NOT QUALIFY.

HAS DECIDED TO FORGO THE PLEASURE AND POWER OF THE POSITION FOR SAKE OF BUSINESS INTERESTS.

L. G. Lyman, one of the recently elected candidates for alderman, has, in many matters, refused to do that he will not qualify for that position, and has so notified the city clerk.

Mr. Lyman, in discussing the matter with a Daily News representative, said: "The decision to make for myself is a very simple one. I am a business man, and I am not prepared to give up my business interests for the sake of the position of alderman. I have decided to forgo the pleasure and power of the position for the sake of my business interests."

COUNCILMAN-ELECT LYMAN WILL NOT QUALIFY.

HAS DECIDED TO FOREGO THE PLEASURE AND POWER OF THE POSITION FOR SAKE OF BUSINESS INTERESTS.

L. G. Lyman, one of the recently elected candidates for alderman, has, on more mature reflection, decided that he will not qualify for that position, and has so notified the authorities.

Mr. Lyman, in discussing the matter with a Daily News representative, said, "This decision is made for purely personal and business reasons. At present I have, so far as I know, no enemies, and I prefer to make none unnecessarily. "Judging by the experience of others it would be impossible for me to serve the city without calling upon myself the personal enmity of many, even though I acted with the best of motives for the public good. Realizing this, I feel that it would be foolish to jeopardize my business interests by the acceptance of this thankless office."

THE HUNGARIAN ORCHESTRA FURNISHED MUSICAL TREAT.

The Royal Hungarian Orchestra received an ovation Monday night at the First Baptist Church, where they provided the third number of the Daytona Lyceum Course, and merited all the praise bestowed upon them.

The church was packed, even the Sunday School room being crowded, with an appreciative audience from the best class of Daytona's citizens and visitors.

The orchestra is composed of six pieces and under the able leadership of Louis Lipski, who is himself an artist of the highest order, it forms one of the finest musical bodies providing entertainment for the public. For two hours they held the audience in rapt attention, except for the bursts of applause which followed every number of the programs and generous encores.

During the violin solos and the Hungarian piano solo, the silence maintained in the audience was in itself impressive and in fact throughout the entire entertainment the attention was very marked.

While the classical pieces were thoroughly enjoyed, and brought abundant applause, the encores, which were usually selections known to all, doubly pleased the audience. Several charming selections from popular operas were included in the program.

The next number of the Lyceum Course will be the Toronto Male Quartet, which will be here March 31.

Dr. J. E. Rawlings received a telegram this morning, inviting the Medical Society of Daytona to be present at a meeting at Tampa next Friday, to hear an address on hookworm, by a physician who is an authority on the subject. The Hillsboro Medical Society will entertain the visitors. Dr. Rawlings, and possibly others from this city, will attend.

IDAHOANS CHARGED WITH DEFAUDING UNCLE SAM.

KETTENBACH, KESTER AND DWYER PLACED ON TRIAL TODAY FOR TIMBER MANIPULATIONS.

BOISE, Idaho, Feb. 15—The Federal district court convened here today for the trial of the so-called Kettenbach timber land fraud cases, in which William F. Kettenbach, of Lewiston and several other wealthy and prominent residents of Northern Idaho, are charged with defrauding the government out of valuable timber lands. The cases were brought here from Moscow on change of venue.

The three defendants, Messrs. Kettenbach, Kester and Dwyer, will be tried on two counts of an indictment returned against them five years ago. They have already been tried and acquitted on three counts of the indictment. The other two were appealed and remanded back to the Idaho district court for retrial. The two counts charge conspiracy to defraud the government out of timber lands by making illegal arrangements with entrymen by which they agreed to purchase the filings of the latter and induced them to take the timber lands which were later turned over to the defendants.

PROMINENT BUSINESS TO CHANGE LOCATION.

On the first of April L. G. Lyman will take possession of the store room now occupied by the Globe clothing store and remove his large stock of groceries from his present place in the Rogers' building to the new location, which he considers much superior in many ways.

Having more room, Mr. Lyman will increase his already large stock of goods and make other improvements in his business.

Mr. Lyman is one of Daytona's most successful business men and is ambitious to expand and increase his trade which he will be better fitted to do in the new quarters.

ROYAL TEMPLARS PLAN TO MAKE MANITOBA "DRY."

WINNIPEG, Man., Feb. 15—plans for pushing a vigorous prohibition campaign with the object of making the whole of Manitoba "dry" will be discussed at the provincial convention of the Royal Templars, which assembled here today for a three days' session. Reports prepared for presentation to the convention show that as the result of the local option elections last December the sale of liquor is now barred in more than three-fifths of the province.

THEODORE V. HALSEY, FORMER AGENT OF TELEPHONE COMPANY AT END OF HIS DELAY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 15—Theodore V. Halsey, former general agent of the Pacific States Telegraph and Telephone Company, who by plea of illness has succeeded in delaying for many months his trial for alleged connection with the Ruef-Schmidtz graft operations, now finds himself unable to delay his court hearing further. On the strength of a report made by a board of medical examiners, who found that Halsey was suffering from neither heart disease nor tuberculosis as his physicians asserted, Judge Dwyne assigned the case for trial today. Halsey must answer to the charge of bribing the Ruef-Schmidtz board of supervisors in connection with a telephone franchise.

WANT MORE UNIFORM AUTOMOBILE LEGISLATION.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15—Uniform Federal and State legislation for the regulation and control of automobiles is the desire of a large and enthusiastic body of men who assembled in Washington today for a three days' convention to discuss the subject. The gathering meets under the auspices of the legislative board of the American Automobile Association.

The purpose of the convention is two-fold—first, to secure the passage in congress of the Federal motor vehicle registration bill, and second, to bring before the official delegates from the various states, the necessity of enacting a uniform state motor vehicle law.

BRITISH PARLIAMENT MEETS INFORMALLY.

LONDON, Feb. 15—The new Parliament, chosen at the recent general elections, assembled for organization today. The formal state opening by the King has been deferred until early in the coming week, as the swearing-in of members and numerous other preliminaries are necessary before the royal inaugural ceremonies take place.

The Mission Study Class met with Mrs. E. W. Greene Monday evening.

WORK ON NEW CLARENDON BEGUN ON FIRE ANNIVERSARY.

WHETHER COINCIDENCE OR INTENTION THE REBUILDING OF THE HOTEL WAS COMMENCED JUST ONE YEAR FROM THE DATE OF ITS DESTRUCTION.

The fire which destroyed the Clarendon hotel at Seabreeze occurred on St. Valentine's Day, Feb. 14, 1909. The 14th of February last year fell upon Sunday and it was shortly after daylight of that Sunday morning that the people of this city and vicinity were aroused by the alarm of fire, only to learn that the magnificent Clarendon was in flames and doomed to destruction.

For a year rumors of the rebuilding of the hotel, and counter-rumors of the abandonment of the project, have kept the people in a state of uncertainty as to the ultimate result, but Dr. Potter has maintained that he would rebuild, and Monday, just a year from the date of the fire, the work of cleaning the grounds for the erection of the new building, on the site of the former hotel, was begun by a large force of workmen.

FELL FROM BICYCLE; THEN DIED.

A TOURIST EXPIRES OF CEREBEL HEMORRHAGE WHILE RIDING ALONG RIDGEWOOD AVENUE.

J. Warren Smith, of Orange, N. J., age 61 years, while bicycle riding on Ridgewood avenue yesterday afternoon dropped suddenly from his wheel to the ground and expired in a few moments. A party which was driving by in an automobile just in time to witness the fall, stopped and took the dying man in the car to the nearest hospital, but life was extinct when medical assistance was reached. The doctor pronounced it a case of cerebel hemorrhage, and the body was taken to the undertakers' parlors.

Mr. Smith was a tourist, spending the winter with his wife at Daytona Beach, in one of the Bleekman flats. The remains, accompanied by the wife, were shipped this afternoon on the 4:03 train to Orange, N. J., for interment.

Roosevelt is now drafting addresses for Berlin and Paris receptions.

FIVE MASKED MEN DYNAMITE CITIZENS BANK AT CHATSWORTH AND MAKE BIG HAUL.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Feb. 15—Five masked men dynamited the Citizens Bank at Chatsworth, near here early today, and escaped with a large sum of money, estimated at $10,000.

FIRE ON COTTAGE AVENUE DOES LITTLE DAMAGE.

KITCHEN OF B. F. HOUGH'S DWELLING FOUND IN FLAMES ABOUT NINE O'CLOCK P. M.

About nine o'clock last night Mrs. J. F. Hargis and her daughter, of Cottage avenue, noticed flames in the kitchen of B. F. Hough's residence, to the south of their dwelling, and immediately notified Mr. Hargis, who cried the alarm and rushed to the scene of the fire.

Attorney E. F. Oates was passing down Beach street and heard the alarm. He at once called to Fire Chief Titus and started for the hose reel at the City Hall. Chief Titus sounded the alarm bell, while Mr. Oates was getting out the hose cart and then together they hurried to the fire and laid the hose, but Mr. Hargis had found a bucket and water hose beside Mr. Hough's house, and breaking a window subdued the flames with a few well applied buckets of water.

Mr. Hough, who was sleeping on the second floor of the main building, did not know of the fire until he was aroused by the noise of the fire fighters. He contends that the fire was of incendiary origin, as there was no possible cause for it, and afterwards an empty kerosene can, which did not belong to himself or neighbors, was found in the yard, near the house.

The fire started in a corner of the kitchen, or rather dining room, in which no fire was used, the gasoline stove used for cooking purposes being several feet distant in an adjoining room. A kerosene stove in the room, Mr. Hough says had not been lighted since Christmas.

One corner of the room was pretty badly scorched by the flames. Fortunately there was no wind or the fire department might have had a better opportunity to display their prowess. Certainly Chief Titus was quickly on the job and ready for what might follow.

Mr. Hough carried some insurance with the Bingham & Thompson Agency.

100 MILES AN HOUR PREDICTED BY HEMMERY.

THE BENZ WITH OLDFIELD AT THE WHEEL, IS BOUND TO BE IT—BEACH ALMOST PERFECT.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15—One hundred miles an hour is the mark set for the speed of the 200 horse power Benz which Barney Oldfield is to drive, will attain on the Daytona Beach during the speed carnival, March 21, 22 and 24.

Jose Froelich, managing director of the Best Import Company, is the man who made a prediction made by the great Hemmery in Germany a few weeks ago. Hemmery is the man who was originally built for and he knows his speed capabilities like a book. The great pilot told Mr. Froelich that on the Florida beach with Oldfield at the wheel there was no doubt but that a speed of one hundred and fifty miles an hour would be made. Hemmery knows the Daytona beach as but few men do and his faith in the Florida sands as being the speediest race course in the world has often been expressed.

"The Daytona Beach is in better shape this season than ever before," said a well known official of the Florida Best Import Association this morning, "and I am glad that Oldfield is coming here with his wonderful car." It has been practically four years since any real effort was made to put the mile record to the limit, for there have been no cars here since 1906 capable of clipping Barriett's time of 28 1-5. In the meantime, huge cars with monstrous power have been built in Europe and sent over a track which is not nearly as hot as our beach. The result is, the records which belong here were taken away from us. But now we will get them back, and I am positive that when the March meeting closes even the most pessimistic will be enthusiastic over the results."

FIVE KILLED IN WRECK ON GEORGIA SOUTHERN.

HEAD-ON COLLISION OCCURRED NINETEEN MILES SOUTH OF MADON YESTERDAY.

MADON, Ga., Feb. 15—It is stated at the City Hospital today that all injured in the Georgia Southern & Florida wreck will probably recover. Three trainmen and two passengers were instantly killed and many injured by a head-on collision nineteen miles south here late yesterday.

News has just reached The Glenn at the sudden death of Mrs. Isabella Plumb, who had been spending some time at this hotel, and who left Daytona last Friday for a few days' visit with friends at Georgiana, this State. Mrs. Plumb was in good health and in the prime of life when she died, and it is a great shock to those who knew her sudden death after a few hours illness.

By L. C. DEMAREE.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River. Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon the waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hulls and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon the beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond's bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.
Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across the magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from the tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artists' brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines run riot in the trees; see the cryptogamous forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty. Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottages. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another, so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty for one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering, "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes which rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed, it is the interior arrangement and artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as another wonder.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.
Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed, but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have wrought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for the pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards.

Till some unheard of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruit. Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "flowers and Squirrels, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare goober there is a bunny ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and know into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers. Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round you are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where Smiling spring its earliest visit paid And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate; another household has a penchant for the polioctez; and another premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, prolificacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish you.

The Fastest Autos and The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or Timbuctoo, and you will be "shown." Here is where the world's record for speed is broken with every recurring season. Autos, the biggest, the fastest, and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousands of flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horse power, up to a 200-horse power, and all degrees of speed from acanter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit, when you do the roads and the beach are yours.

The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down into your wallet only for coin for auto, and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

PROGRESSIVE NEW SMYRNA

NEW SMYRNA is situated fifteen miles south of Daytona and is an ideal spot reached from Daytona by a hard surface road winding through one of the most picturesque parts of Florida.

With its ancient ruins dating back to a time when the history of man runneth not, interlaced with wires of the modern telegraph and telephone, its miles of shell streets as hard and smooth as a floor and over-arched by hoary forest giants that grew in stately grandeur during the lapse of bygone centuries, New Smyrna is truly a place of romance and rest.

All nature here is very inviting to the tourist and pleasure-seeker. Here too is to be found the best fishing and hunting in the State of Florida.

The people are thrifty, the business men enterprising, and all unite in extending the welcome hand of hospitality to strangers. There are five church edifices for white people and an equal number for the colored population; the town has an excellent high school, a splendid public library, and up-to-date business houses.

There are any number of pretty homes for the permanent population, which numbers close to 2,000, and some very fine winter residences. There are good hotels and boarding houses where you can find accommodations to meet your requirements.

Adjoining New Smyrna is as fine a section of vegetable land as can be found anywhere. This land has been divided into small farms which can be bought at reasonable prices. Some of the finest celery grown in the State is raised on this land. All other vegetables grow in abundance, and here, too, is the home of the famous Indian River oranges.

New Smyrna has no bonded indebtedness and the tax levy is low.

A point that no tourist should fail to visit is the ruins of the Old Spanish Mission which stand somber and alone about one and a quarter miles southwest of New Smyrna. A good road leads to the place and the trip can be easily made by an automobile. Silent, in the great pine flats by the margin of the forest, is this place of pilgrimage for the pious; this rendezvous for the picnicker. The ruins are extensive, and while there is no authentic history of their origin, it is presumed that the Mission was built by the Franciscans in the days when the once powerful Kingdom of Spain first planted its flag upon what is now American soil. It was built of coquina, the roof being of the same material, cut into thin slabs and covered with cement plaster. Extensive gardens surrounded it, which were enclosed by a stone wall, portions of which still remain. Visitors usually come in parties merry and curious but the spell of the place soon falls upon them and they separate to sit alone, silent and meditative, under the arches or beside the ancient well.

CORONADO

Is situated on the peninsula opposite New Smyrna and is connected by a good road and bridge over the deep current of Indian River. Here you can put aside your conventional garb, breathe in large and deep the salty tonic of the sea and enjoy yourself to your heart's content with rod and reel in row or sail boat or in the ocean surf a short half-mile away. The great varieties of fish inhabiting the river and lagoon pass through the channel from the sea beneath the bridge. From verandas, upper balconies and windows you behold the magnificent river, the distant lagoons and islands, the forest-covered peninsula and the vast reaches of the Atlantic Ocean.

HAWKS PARK

A pretty village located along the ridge above the Indian River two and one-half miles south of New Smyrna and connected with fine shell roads. There is the appearance of newness, comfort and seclusion about the place which stamps it as the abode of people who come here to enjoy the blessings of outdoor life away from places where crowds are apt to gather.

ORMOND is five miles north of Daytona, located on the western bank of the Halifax River. The location of the town permits of good drainage and perfect sanitation; the elevation is superb and ideal for winter homes. A wide bridge connects Ormond with Ormond Beach. Many fine residences are maintained on either side of the river, most of them embellished with sub-tropical flora and shrubbery, besides thrifty orange and other citrus fruit trees.

The town is very cosmopolitan, has an excellent graded school, several churches, a fine public library, up-to-date places of business and comfortable and convenient hotels and boarding houses.

Ormond has many of the Florida attractions—fine fruit, good fishing, excellent automobilism, safe boating, salubrious climate and pleasant walks and drives.

At Ormond Beach is located the large Hotel Ormond, and its lesser sister, Bretton Inn. The former occupies a position overlooking the Halifax River, while the latter has as its outlook the magnificent beach and the broad Atlantic.

The walks in all directions are particularly attractive, and the arbors, shady and inviting spots and romantic nooks are crowded with rustic seats which are mute invitations to enter into the enjoyment thereof.

Besides the broad, smooth ocean beach there are many drives for carriage or automobile—long drives and short drives; drives through groves of golden oranges; drives through dense tropical forests to Spanish ruins; drives to the ancient Causeway built by the slaves of planters of long ago, and drives to the plantations of hospitable settlers, whose places are replete with the interest of Southern fruits and flowers.

One of these interesting plantations is Number Nine, located on the peninsula, five miles north of the Hotel Ormond. Here you see a fine orange grove, together with great varieties of other sub-tropical fruits and flowers. Five miles further on you come to Moundgrove, one of the finest orange groves in this section of Florida. Moundgrove is on the headwaters of the Halifax River and is amid pretty surroundings. The place is reached by a good road [passing Number Nine] and is a drive all tourists may enjoy.

PORT ORANGE is a pretty little village situated five miles south of Daytona on the Daytona-New Smyrna hard-surface road, the scenic highway of the East Coast. The town is located on the Halifax River, over which spans a bridge from the town to the peninsula opposite.

The town is well laid out and has many pretty homes owned and occupied by residents and winter tourists. It has several churches, one of the best graded schools in Volusia county, two general stores, a real estate agency and two or three hotels.

A large number of tourists and winter residents make Port Orange winter headquarters, one of the several attractions being the excellent fishing. Port Orange is in the orange belt and a number of very fine citrus groves are nearby, where oranges, tangerines and grape-fruit hang in profusion. Some of the best trucking land in the State is to be found thereabout and excellent crops are raised.

West of Port Orange a short distance are the remains of the old Dunlawton sugar mill, a spot that is visited every year by hundreds of tourists. At one time all the country west of Port Orange, surrounding the old mill, was a vast sugar-cane and indigo plantation. The mill was operated extensively in those days but has been in disuse for thirty or forty years.

A pretty automobile or carriage drive from Daytona is via the ocean beach to the approach of the Port Orange bridge, across the bridge and then passing through Port Orange to the ruins of the celebrated old sugar mill, returning to Daytona by the road on the mainland. This drive affords a very pleasing variety of scenery.

DELAND, the county seat of Volusia County, is situated 23 miles southwest of Daytona and is reached from the latter city by an excellent hard-surface road recently constructed.

At Deland is located the John B. Stetson University, one of the leading educational institutions of the South. Because of the interest in matters educational Deland is known as "The Athens of Florida."

Stetson University has a faculty of 50 professors and instructors. There are over $400,000 in buildings and equipment; nearly $300,000 endowment; a Carnegie Library alone representing an investment in building, endowment and books, of more than $120,000. The library is the United States Government depository for the State of Florida, and contains over 15,000 volumes. Science Hall, one of the newest of 16 buildings, with its furnishings, represents an outlay of $60,000. Elizabeth Hall is one of the most beautiful college buildings in the South.

The city has a population of about 3,500, with a thickly settled country adjacent. Deland proper is five miles east of the St. Johns River, on the high, rolling pine land of the great "Orange Ridge" of Florida.

The predominating products are oranges and grapefruit, the estimated crop from this vicinity being over 300,000 boxes this year. Grapes, peaches, pears, Japan persimmons, plums, pecans, guavas, strawberries and other fruits are grown in plenty.

In the way of public improvements are many miles of fine shell roads, an excellent high school, electric lights, a system of waterworks that is owned and operated by the city, supplying the purest water at little cost.

Nine houses of worship testify that Deland is a church-going community. Baptists, Episcopalians, Methodists (Northern and Southern), Presbyterians, Christians and Catholics, besides colored Baptists and Methodists, are represented.

The graded school offers a ten years' course, and the building which it occupies is newly furnished throughout, and is one of the most commodious and best equipped public schools in the State.

The trip from Daytona to Deland is made by automobile in a little over an hour, and there are many pretty drives in the vicinity of the county site. A good road leads to DeLeon Springs, five miles, a historic spot, where 60,000 gallons of water bubble from the earth every minute.

From Deland automobiles go south to Osteen, 18 miles, on shell and marl roads; the St. Johns is crossed by ferry near Osteen and cars can then continue to Sanford and Orlando by hard road. There is a shell road from Deland to Orange City, five miles, and a good road from Deland to Lake Helen, a like distance.

ORANGE CITY

The principal attraction around Orange City is the many handsome golden orange groves. The town is supplied with water said to be the purest in the world, another attraction to visitors. It is at Orange City that passengers over the Florida East Coast Ry. transfer to carriages and drive to Deland. The town is surrounded by land peculiarly adapted to the cultivation of citrus fruits.

THREE OF THE MEN IN CHARGE OF WASHINGTON CONFERENCE ON STATE UNITY.

In connection with the meeting of the "house of governors" in Washington the conference of the National Civic Federation to organize a movement to bring about greater uniformity of ideas and greater unity of sentiment among the states has attracted the attention of publicists throughout the Union. John Hays Hammond, chairman of the federation's committee in charge of the conference, said of it: "I think this is one of the most important and far-reaching movements the federation has ever undertaken. If in the end it serves its purposes and aids in welding into a more compact, efficient and united whole the states which make the Union the object of the federation will have been gained." President Taft expressed entire approval of the meeting of the conference and delivered the opening address. Among the members of the committee in charge of the meeting Dr. Harry Pratt Judson, president of the University of Chicago; Cyrus H. McCormick, the well known Chicagoan and son of the famous inventor, and Myron T. Herrick, former governor of Ohio, were conspicuous.

SATURDAY'S ATTRACTION SURPASSES ALL OTHERS

One of the most enjoyable performances of the present season will be seen at the Daytona opera house next Saturday evening in the appearance of The Lyman Twin Brothers the popular twin comedians and a large company in their latest musical play "The Prize Winners." This new production far surpasses all others in which these clever young comedians have yet appeared, being supported by some of the cleverest comedy entertainers today in the musical field. The production is a revelation in beautiful scenery, pretty costumes, a dainty chorus and a wonderful display of electrical effects, and is said to be one of the finest musical comedy productions entour.

Justice L. H. Karn and M. A. Briggs were Daytona visitors today, coming up from Port Orange on the morning train.

RECEDING TIDE LEFT THEM HIGH AND DRY.

T. S. Woods and Clarence Vincent made a trip to the Inlet Sunday in the formers' launch, and while exploring one of the creeks found their gasoline tank was dry. They were provided with more gasoline and proceeded to fill up, but while they were so engaged the boat drifted upon a sand bar and before they realized it, the swiftly receding tide had left them high and dry. After a time a Port Orange boat came along and finding the tide would not be high until midnight, they abandoned their boat and returned in the other to Port Orange with the intention of walking home from that place but were fortunate enough to secure a ride with one of the big auto busses.

D. McLaren returned Monday night from Cincinnati, Ohio, where he was called by business matters a week ago.

STRANGER TOOK WATERY PLUNGE FOR POCKETBOOK

A gentleman, who with some ladies, was boarding a boat at the Halifax Yacht Club dock, Sunday morning, took an involuntary cold bath in an endeavor to save a pocket book from the water.

One of the ladies, while standing on the wharf, tossed the pocket book to the gentleman, who was in the boat, and in trying to catch it, he lost his balance and dived headfirst overboard.

One of the gentlemen present loaned him dry clothing in which to return home.

The pocket book floated and was recovered by means of a row boat.

Mrs. M. A. Bennett and daughter, and Miss May Murray, of Pittsburg, who have been at La Crosse Villa, have gone to Cuba for a week or ten day's visit.

The guests of The Ridgewood enjoyed a beautiful "heart" party in the parlors of this handsome hotel last evening. The rooms were artistically decorated in hearts, the effect of which was heightened by the soft light of numerous wax candles. A large heart was the centerpiece of the mantel, and the electric lights were shaded in red. The refreshments also very prettily sembled the idea in the dainty white and red frosted wafers, which were served with a delicious fruit punch. The evening was most delightfully spent. Four ladies' prizes were awarded and three gentlemen's prizes. The winners were: Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Gaston, Mrs. Rayner and Mrs. Mott; Mr. Tharrat, Mr. and Mr. Chandler. The prizes were exceptionally handsome, among others a cut glass vase, a picture of Daytona scenery in Sepia. Fourteen tables were set.

London Cellar Restaurants.

Before coffee stalls were instituted the humblest places of refreshment were cellars, where the hard up, as the slang phrase went, could "dive for a dinner," with a choice of such viands as tripe, cow heel, sausages and shin of beef soup. Some of the cellar restaurants existed as recently as the early seventies of the last century in Butcher row, Temple Bar and the network of courts and alleys swept away for the site of the royal courts of justice. It was in this neighborhood and probably to a dining place of this description that Dr. Johnson resorted in his struggling days, when he was so poor that, as he relates, it was not every day that he could afford a halfpenny tip for the waiter.--London Chronicle.

A Person is Often Judged by His PRINTING

It should be up-to-date the same as you would have your clothing up-to-date.

THE DAILY NEWS JOB PRINTING DEPARTMENT

Has just received over one thousand pounds of the most Modern and Pretty faces of Type.
 This in itself is not so much but our workmen are artists in their line and the combination of Modern Type, First-class Workmanship and Good Paper is what produces

EXCELLENT PRINTING

A new press has also been installed by the Daily News---a Mergenthaler Linotype is also among the new acquisitions to the plant. All this in itself may be of no particular interest to you but it helps bear out the assertion that the Daily News produces the Best Kind of Job Printing. And bear in mind the best kind costs little more than the "botchy" kind.

Our Specialty is Catering to the Wants of Particular People. . . .

Little Boy Blue, come blow your horn;
If you don't it won't be blown.
The people won't flock
To buy your stock
If you never make it known.
So, Little Boy Blue, come blow your horn;
It's the proper business caper,
And the very best way
To make it pay
Is to blow it through this paper.

There is No Place

Just Like Daytona

As a Resort in which to spend the winter or a part of it. Daytona is known the world over as the Prettiest Resort in Florida--and the Beauty of the City is as the Architect of the Universe left it.

ONE OF THE MANY BEAUTIFUL VIEWS IN DAYTONA.

If you are sojourning in Florida and have not yet visited Daytona your trip to the State is Not Yet Complete.

Come and See--
Daytona Awaits You.

Captain G. L. Johnson.

One of the Military Aids to President Taft.

Captain Graham L. Johnson is the representative of the infantry arm of the service on the staff of President Taft. He is a native of Alabama.

Henry S. Graves.

Successor of Gifford Pinchot as Chief Forester.

Henry S. Graves, successor of Gifford Pinchot as chief forester of the United States, was formerly associated with the removed official in the government service. Mr. Graves has been director of the forestry school of Yale university.

Captain Daniel Van Voorhis.

President's Aid Figures at White House Functions.

The cavalry branch of the army is represented on the president's staff by Captain Daniel Van Voorhis, a young native of Ohio, who began his military career as a corporal in a Pennsylvania volunteer regiment in 1898.

Hard Hit.

Lord Fitzfooodle, casting himself on his knees before Araminta, gave utterance to the following: "Oh, that I could snatch a pine from some primeval forest! I would sharpen the end with my penknife, dip it in the molten crater of Vesuvius and write upon the azure wall of heaven in letters of living fire, 'Araminta, I love thee!'"

Theory and Practice.

"Dinglebat has original ideas about family government. He says every home should be a little republic, where universal toleration prevails and every one has a voice in the government." "Yes; his family is managed on that plan. But he and Mrs. Dinglebat have the same old wrangle every day as to who shall be president."

The Story of a Turtle's Meal.
A butterfly hunter tells the following story of swamp life:
"In the water right between my feet was a spotted turtle that had just captured an appetizing but by no means dainty morsel. This was a terrapin-like bug that was more than a mouthful. His body was already out of sight, but clawlike legs protruded from both sides of that isosceles triangle which a turtle's mouth makes when it is closed and waved a frantic farewell to the passing underwater world. The turtle was a long time in masticating his terrapin, but it was a happy time. His whole body blinked contentedly, and he waved his fore legs with a caressing outpush, a motion exactly like that of a child at the breast. Then he wagged his head solemnly from side to side, as a wise turtle might who feels that such good lunches are put up by fate only for the knowing ones of this watery world, and pushed himself halfway under the roots of a tussock for a nap."

A Daring Argument.

A quick witted and daring lawyer once saved a guilty client from sure conviction on a charge of poisoning. It was proved that the poisoning had been done by means of certain cakes, a portion of which was produced in court. When the counsel for the prisoner had finished his speech he said: "And these, gentlemen of the jury, are some of the alleged poisoned cakes. We declare to you, gentlemen of the jury, that they are not poisoned cakes. They are as harmless cakes as ever were made, and in order, gentlemen of the jury, to show you that these cakes are not poisoned I will eat one of them right here in your presence." And he did eat one. He took good care, however, to leave the room at the earliest opportunity and to make a bee line for an adjoining room, where he had an emetic in readiness and an antidote. But the jury never heard about the emetic or the antidote until the lawyer's client had been acquitted.

What He Saw.

"Do tell me something about Mr. Oldplot's latest play!" said the young lady on the bottom stair at the dance. "They say the climax at the close of the third act's superb. Won't you describe it to me as you saw it?" "I will," grimly consented the young man with the split white kid gloves. "The heroine came slowly on and knelt, dagger in hand, behind a clump of pink ribbons. Then the hero emerged from a large bunch of purple flowers, and as soon as she perceived him she fell upon him, stabbed him twice with a handsome hatpin, and he sank back into a beautiful aigret." "What in the world are you talking about?" exclaimed the fair listener. "Well," replied the narrator, "you see, the lady in front of me refused to move her hat, and that is just how the scene appeared to me."—London Scraps.

One of Florence's Jokes.

That genial comedian W. J. Florence had a habit of promising a man a fish or some game when he was about starting on a hunting or fishing trip. Day after day would pass, and the game would not be forthcoming. But almost every day a letter or telegram would come saying that Florence had not forgotten; that Florence was just about sending the game; that there was no cause for worry, as a fine fish or deer was on its way to the express office. At first this solicitousness would cause courteous letters and telegrams in return. As the delay got longer the victim would get impatient and would finally be literally haunted by huge fishes or deer, "with the compliments of W. J. Florence." Then some fine day, when it was least expected, the fish or deer would come.

Quaint Hymns.

For unreality of sentiment in hymns we must go back to the eighteenth century. Here is an instance:
Ah, lovely appearance of death!
What sight upon earth is so fair?
Not all the gay pageants that breathe
Can with a dead body compare.
It seems strange that death should have been the occasion for a touch of unconscious humor in a hymn. In the collection entitled "Hymns, Ancient and Modern," there was and possibly still is the following verse:
They do not hear when the great bell
Is ringing overhead.
They cannot rise and come to church
With us—for they are dead.
The list of things which "they" are unable to do might be indefinitely extended.—London Chronicle.

Had to Walk.

The intoxicated gentleman stared in a bewildered manner at the sign on the bridge. The sign read, "Loads Must Not Be Taken Across the Bridge Faster Than a Walk."
After giving the sign profound study he observed:
"Don't see how fellers' w' loadsh can do better'n a walk nashow!"

A Disraeli Anecdote.

Sitting next Disraeli at dinner, Mrs. Jeune said that Lord Sherbrooke must be allowed one virtue—namely, his patient and affectionate behavior toward his wife. "Do you think," said Disraeli in his deep tone, "that he has ever seen her?"—"Memoirs of Lady St. Heller."

Scientific.

"Why did you get a divorce?"
"My wife poisoned my whole life."
"But you hastened to marry again?"
"Well, I had an antidote coming to me, didn't I?"—Cleveland Leader.

Virtue that parleys is near surrender.—French Proverb.

Hill, went up to Jacksonville, Sunday, to meet some friends from the North and spend a few days with them at St. Augustine.

The W. C. T. U. meeting will be held the last Friday in the month, Feb. 25th, and not next Friday, as was generally announced at the churches Sunday, through a mistake in the date.

Altames May, colored, died Sunday night at the Industrial School, of lockjaw, caused by running a nail in his foot. The remains were shipped to his home in Jacksonville this afternoon.

in Valley, Pa., who was the guest of gustine, en route to her northern a tour of the State and stopped here on her return from the lower coast.

Mrs. Chas. Anderson, who has been conducting the Riverside, on Beach street, has given up the house, and

Mrs. Julia Martin came over from Sea-winter there.

Joliet, Ill., are in the city for a few days' visit with Hon. George H. Munroe and family, having stopped on will probably stop on their return for a longer visit. Mr. Campbell is a general contractor and vice president of the Joliet National Bank.

Alluring Surroundings.
A young man who had just gone to Philadelphia to take employment in a business house was casting about for a suitable room for himself in Germantown when he chanced upon one in a fine house overlooking a cemetery.

He was a little doubtful about the terms and more than doubtful about the cemetery.

"Your rate is pretty high," he murmured hesitatingly to the landlady.
"But consider the cheerful view, sir," ventured the mistress of the house.
"Cheerful view?" exclaimed that applicant for lodgings. "Is that what you call a view that embraces a graveyard?"

"Why, certainly," was the response
"Just think how comfortin' and cheerin' it will be when you look out of your window and think you're not there!"—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Arsenic.
Arsenic is mined in Japan, Italy,
Portugal, Spain, Germany, England and within a limited area, in the United States. Its uses are many. As a poison it has been known from very early times. The peasant women of Austria consume large quantities of it, having faith in its virtues as a beautifier, and the men of the same region are addicted to its use in the mistaken belief that it increases their bodily strength and endurance.

AN AUTOMOBILE PARTY
CAPTURED BABY COON.

T. B. Collins while out with a party in his car Sunday afternoon caught a small raccoon on the New Smyrna road and brought it home in the lamp of the machine.

The little animal was seen to climb a tree at the roadside and one of the party shook it from the tree and Mr.
Collins caught it in his gloved hands.

A negro who saw the other 'coon in the lamp of the machine while on the way home could hardly be persuaded that he was not "seeing them again."

To Get His Money's Worth.

In a village near Edinburgh there lived an old baker and his son. Their trade was in a flourishing condition, but unfortunately in the midst of their prosperity the old man, who had once been a great drinker, turned insane.
The son, who was renowned for his love of money, was forced to put him in a lunatic asylum and, according to the terms of the establishment, to pay a fee for three months in advance, amounting to £30. The old man was scarcely in a fortnight, however, when he died. The son, thinking to raise an action against the establishment for the recovery of the, as he termed it, unused money, inquired of an old lawyer who was a bit of a wag whether he thought it would be prudent to try to recover the money or not. The chip of the law, putting on a grave face, replied seriously, "D'ye think it was best to gang and put in the rest o' the time yerse'?"

He Saw a Great Light.

Wrecks on the coast of Cornwall, England, were once a source of revenue to the natives. A writer says that in the local dialect "the folks on the coast teach their children to say in their prayers night times, 'God bless father an' mother an' zend a ship to shore vore mornin'.'" The Cornish folk were great smugglers too. The Rev. R. S. Hawker had in his service as man of all work old Tristram Penfith, the last of the smugglers. One day he made to the vicar this notable confession: "Well, sir, I do think, when I come to look back and to consider what lives we used to live-- drunk all night and idle abed all day, cursing, swearing, fighting, gambling, lying and always prepared to shoot the gauger--I do really believe, sir, we surely was in sin!"

Brought Down the House.

On one occasion, when Arthur Roberts, the English actor, was performing the part of Captain Crostree in the burlesque of "Black Eyed Susan" at Glasgow he converted an awkward contretemps into a bit. In one of the scenes Crostree entered supposed to be inebriated and staggered about the stage. In doing so Mr. Roberts accidentally came in contact with the scenery of the inn, bringing the whole set down. The curtain had to be lowered, and the vivacious comedian came to the front and said, "Ladies and gentlemen, you see when we come to Glasgow we always bring down the house."

Belated.

"I understand that Fallman has come to the conclusion to contest his wife's will."
"Well, what is there courageous about that? She's dead, isn't she?"

N. N. Bailey, toll keeper at Central Bridge, each season is pried so continuously with questions concerning the tide that he conceived the idea of putting up a low tide dial at the toll house for the information of the interested public. He laid the matter before L. H. Rowe & Co., and with his usual affability F. M. Rowe got up the dial and it was placed.
It works like a charm, but not exactly as was expected, for now Mr.
Bailey is asked all kinds of questions about the dial, if it is running, if it is correct, etc.
